Summary of reasons for decision:

The video file is of an adult engaging a child in sexual activity and is a record of her sexual abuse. The video promotes and supports the exploitation of children for sexual purposes and is therefore deemed to be objectionable under s 3(2)(a) of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993. The video is intended for the sexual arousal of adults with an interest in children. The video legitimises children as appropriate and available subjects for adult sexual attention. This classification interferes with the right to freedom of expression as affirmed by the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990. However, this is an outcome that is consistent with Parliament's intention that publications which fall under s 3(2)(a) be deemed to be objectionable and reflects the concern of New Zealand society to protect its young and vulnerable members from sexual exploitation.
